CATHOLIC YOUTH GROUP ENJOYS OUTING SUNDAY TO HISTORIC SHIP ISLAND

Boat Trip And All-Day Picnic Memorable Occasion—Weather Conditions Ideal—Members Bring Basket Lunches—Other Affairs Planned by Active Organization with Increasing Membership.

On last Sunday morning, thirty-nine members of the Senior Club of the Catholic Youth Organization gathered after attending six o'clock mass on the pier of St. Stanislaus College and embarked aboard the "Freda Mae," owned and operated by Captain John McDonald III, of Pass Christian, and sailed to Ship Island for an all-day cruise on the waters of Mississippi Sound and picnic on the island.

Basket lunches were brought by the members of this happy group and the organization provided refreshments of soft drinks, ice cream and cracker-jack and with swimming and games as amusement, a grand and gala time was enjoyed by everyone attending. A bright sunny day added to the pleasure of everyone, after the heavy rains which had been falling daily. The committee in charge of arrangements reports that they were especially fortunate with every detail thought of and handled before-hand and not a single accident or disappointment to mar the day. Those serving on the committee were Miss Bert Monti and Messrs Lucien Kidd and Joseph di Benedetto, Jr.

BAY LIONS TO COLLECT XMAS DOLLS

Local Club to Solicit Discarded Toys For Holiday Distribution to Poor.

The Lions Club of Bay St. Louis is projecting and promoting a laudable undertaking and the effort should find general co-operation as we feel certain it will.

The club is soliciting discarded dolls in order they may be repaired and generally renovated and distributed during Christmas time.

All donations of the kind may be left at the Garner's Cleaning and Pressing establishment, at Hancock and Union streets, or at the Gulf Chevrolet station, on South Beach, or telephone 363 and the dolls will be picked up by a collector working for the cause.

This announcement and plea for dolls is made early in order to give time for the work and for its ultimate success. And furthermore in order that ample time will be provided for readiness at Christmas.

Remodeling of toys will be under the auspices of the local Boy Scouts, No. 208 and supervision of Scoutmaster Carl Arnold, and Bay Girl Scouts under supervision of Mrs. J. B. Goldman.

Mr. Arnold and Mrs. Goldman will be glad to contact with persons desirous of more information and will be glad to assist in any manner to make the project all the more a success.

Second Meeting of Hancock Sportsmen Held Last Friday.

A second organization meeting held Friday night in Bay St. Louis at the Courthouse, of the Hancock Game and Fish Protection Association, was highlighted with the payment of dues by 41 individuals, all of whom will be listed as charter members.

The meeting, presided over by W. H. "Bill" Starr, member of the state game and fish commission, was attended by sportsmen from over the Coast and several from New Orleans. R. M. Norwood, new game warden for Harrison county, attended the session, as did Bill Starr, Jr.

No effort was made to elect permanent officers, as originally planned, it being pointed out that a number of sportsmen not present have expressed intentions of joining, and it was decided to permit these a vote in the selection of officers. The next meeting was set for July 31.

LIBRARY NOTES

The library is indebted to Mr. Isidore Teitelbaum for the gift of 200 books. Most of these are non-fiction and are very valuable books.

Miss Frances Davis, District Supervisor of the Library Extension Project, spent part of Friday visiting the library.

Under new regulations the library will be open each day until 5 p. m. and until 1 p. m. on Saturday.

In order to insure a more prompt return of books the State Supervisor of the Library Extension Project has asked that the local advisory committee decide on the matter of fines and pass a ruling on their decision on all over-due books.

VICTIM OF AUTO CRASH

Bro. Benet, Member Brothers of Sacred Heart, Meets Death Near Mobile.

Bro. Benet, member of the Brotherhood of the Sacred Heart, met with instant death Tuesday afternoon at a late hour in an auto crash while returning from camp located near Coden, Ala.

Bro. Brenden, at the wheel, was seriously hurt by broken collar bone and other injuries but it is said he will recover. Other parties in the auto escaped without serious injury.

Brosides Bro. Benet and Bro. Brenden traveling the car at the time were Mrs. Martha Tizen and Mrs. Joseph L. Morrison both of Mobile. The body of Bro. Benet was transferred from Mobile to Bay St. Louis Wednesday afternoon, with interment at 11 o'clock Thursday. A requiem mass at 7 o'clock. Interment in the college cemetery, Bay St. Louis.

Bro. Benet was a native of New Orleans, aged 27 years, and will be remembered here some two years ago. He taught the classes of chemistry and special course in English. He took his perpetual vows about two years ago.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Anna Finnegan, a brother, James Finnegan, and a sister, Mrs. Sidney Barnett, all of New Orleans.

He entered the Order of Sacred Heart in Metuchen, N. J., in 1931, after being graduated from Mater Dolorosa High school, and taught in Brooklyn, N. Y., for a year before returning.

In 1932 and 1933 he taught at St. Stanislaus. In 1936 he taught in Vicksburg, Miss., and from February, 1939, to the end of the school term he was assigned to Catholic High school in Baton Rouge.

Brother Benet had been teaching at McGill since the beginning of the school year. Details of the accident is to the effect the party was nearing Mobile when a slippery road was encountered and the driver lost control of the wheel, crashing into a telephone or telegraph pole. The impact broke the neck of Bro. Benet, it was reported.

Pupils and others will remember this fine young man. He was of high stature, measuring over 6 feet, Auburn hair, and well liked by all he met.

After August 1 City Will No Longer Pick Up Trash and Rubbish.

A notice from the city appears elsewhere in this issue of The Echo that on and after August 1, the city garbage department will pick up nothing from sidewalks but garbage and that in containers. Other material such as branches of trees and yard refuse will not be picked up but left to the individual to dispose of. It appears too much of this refuse has been placed on the sidewalks which the city is not supposed to pick up. This requires extra force and is costly and has not been done heretofore. This notice is promulgated in all kindness and as a matter of information, published more in the form of information than of admonition. The housekeeper and others will take notice.

SECOND MEETING MONDAY

Of Catholic Youth Association—About Seventy-five In Attendance.

The senior and junior clubs of the Catholic Youth Association met on Monday night at the Knights of Columbus hall for their second meeting of the month of July.

A good attendance was noted at each of the meetings, and Father Leo F. Fahey, Spiritual Director, attended each meeting and assisted the young people in every way possible.

The main topic discussed was the participation of the two clubs in the parade held on Thursday commemorating Americanism Day in which every civic organization will parade, and it was decided that all those marching will dress in white and wear a red band with the letters C. Y. O. in white across the chest, identifying the organization.

The two groups joined after finishing their business meetings with the singing of "God Bless America" and after hearing an interesting history of the United States flag by Father Fahey, and enjoyed dancing by record recorder and the Senior Group served refreshments of cake and punch to all members.

About seventy-five members of the two groups were present at these meetings and the continued growth of the organization is noted with interest.

PROVINCIAL NEWLY CREATED SOUTHERN PROVINCE RECEIVED

National Head Society of Divine Word to Make Bay St. Louis Headquarters—Inauguration and Welcome Ceremonies Held Thursday.

On Thursday at St. Augustine's Seminary, a large number of the clergy from cities on the Coast and in the vicinity gathered together for the inauguration and welcome of Rev. Joseph Eckert, S. V. D., former pastor of St. Anselm's Church in Chicago, who has been appointed provincial of the newly created Southern province of the Society of the Divine Word in the United States and who will make his headquarters at St. Augustine's Seminary in Bay St. Louis.

Establishment of Southern, Western and Eastern provinces of the Society of the Divine Word replacing the former single province was announced last week at St. Mary's Mission Seminary in Techny, Illinois.

Rev. John H. Gasper, S. V. D., has been named rector at the local Seminary for a second term, and Rev. Gerard Heffels, S. V. D., a former rector at the Seminary, has been named pastor at St. Anselm's to succeed Father Eckert.

Shrine to Blessed Mother. The Seminary, one of the beauty spots in Bay St. Louis, has recently erected a Shrine to Our Blessed Mother which, although not quite complete, is most artistically designed in a beautiful setting just to the right of the chapel. A statue of the Blessed Mother is set into a large niche built into a high wall made of rough cement stone, with graduating sides, and in the center just before the statue, a lamb stands and drinks from a fountain which falls over a number of small terraces and flows into a small stream on the grounds of the seminary.

Seminary Largest in the World. This Society represents one of the largest of its kind in the world where young colored boys are educated for the priesthood, and with the splendid buildings erected and the added asset to the community, is an enhancement to the development of Bay St. Louis.

Later Mr. Frawley said he felt no ill effects in advance and that the attack came as a bolt from a clear sky. Before reaching Bay St. Louis he and his party had stopped at Pass Christian, where they visited friends, the Del Bondio family, where he was said to have been in the best of spirits and showed no sign of being ill in the least.

Unable to be removed, he will remain at the local hospital. He was visited by his own physician from New Orleans, who praised the hospital and its service highly and said that all that could have been done had taken place.

Chief Hobbs was accompanied by Mrs. Hobbs in his car and both took Mr. Frawley in charge and their prompt and timely assistance was of much value, it was stated.

Representative Of State Tax Commission After Truck Peddlers.

C. T. McLeod, who resides at Lucedale, field representative Mississippi State Tax Commission, has been in Bay St. Louis and circulating along the Coast this week, in answer to complaints coming from Bay St. Louis merchants and others regarding peddlers from other states selling locally. A license to sell from trucks is $200.00 per truck per county. If the stuff offered for sale is home-grown a permit from Gulfport, (Gulf & Ship Island R. R. Office) is necessary. Mr. McLeod says it is necessary to suppress the illegitimate peddler who sells against the home merchant paying privilege license.

Bay High Band Participated in Parade Thursday's Celebration

Professor W. S. Morgan states that in lieu of the weekly concert of the Bay High Band, the band participated prominently in the parade staged on Thursday commemorating Americanism Day.

The band in spite of the excessive rains during the past forty days, has been each week rendering a concert either in the City Park or in the Auditorium of the Bay High School and music-lovers will please take notice of the fact that in the event of bad weather, the concerts will continue with the aforementioned change of location.

Mother St. Rose, Aged Assistant Superior, Passes Away at Orleans.

Mother St. Rose, 86-year-old assistant superior of St. Joseph Academy, at New Orleans, died Monday following a month's illness.

Born Myrthe Tiberville in St. John the Baptist Parish Mother St. Rose took her vows in New Orleans 65 years ago and was assigned as a teacher in St. Joseph's Academy at Baton Rouge, where she remained about ten years.

Later she was made mother superior of the academy at New Orleans and was instrumental in replacing the old inadequate building with the new and more spacious institution. She also served as mother superior of a working girls home in Cincinnati for a number of years and returned to New Orleans ten years ago as assistant superior of the academy there.

Markers Clearly Define The Way

AMONG THE BEST MARKED highways in the nation are those in Mississippi. The efficient maintenance division of the State Highway Department has won this tribute for the Magnolia State. Above is shown the intersection of US 82 and State Highway 15 near Mathiston, with markers clearly defining the route for motorists. Marking the state highways is only one of the numerous phases of the maintenance division's activities. "Mississippi's modern highways represent a large investment, but one that is paying citizens huge dividends," comments State Highway Commissioner T. J. Lowry of the Northern District. "Objectives of the State Highway Department is to see that the excellence of our roads continues to justify each dollar invested and that those dividends will increase because of proper maintenance and roadside beautification."

FILTHY MAGAZINES DENOUNCED.

DENOUNCING objectionable magazines as "unfit for children," with covers and illustrations that are "shocking," and reading matter "not fit for anyone to read," Mayor La Guardia, of New York, has appealed to news-dealers to cooperate with him in removing the publications from display and sale.

"I am sure you would be surprised," wrote the Mayor, "if I told you that the children's court only recently reported to me that a great many of the sex offenses and other crimes committed by young people, such as assault and petty larceny and even robbery, are a direct result of reading such magazines and publications."

Declaring that no question of censorship or freedom of the press was involved, the Mayor asked the dealers to work together for the good, safety and happiness of the children of New York. He admitted his lack of power to censor publications but he added significantly, "the Mayor has the power of sewerage disposal and, if necessary, I will get rid of these dirty magazines as filth."

It remains to be seen how far the mayor will get with his proposal but the problem that he faces is also faced by almost every town and city throughout the United States. There are publications on sale which cannot go through the mails because of their contents and they are purchased and read by some of our young people.

The open sale of salacious, sexy publications is not wholesome for the youth of any community. The business of selling smut, which is the only excuse for the publication of these objectionable magazines, deserves no consideration and should be discontinued, regardless of the means necessary to drive them from indiscriminate distribution.

SEVERE HAY FEVER SEASON.

Hay-fever sufferers will not like this news, but C. C. Durham, botanist, who makes an annual study of nation-wide pollen conditions, says that hay-fevered this season will be unusually severe.

The botanist points out that wet weather in the Spring has stimulated the growth of ragweed and that the drought last Summer killed grass, thus increasing the growing areas of ragweed.

While hay-fever may be a humorous matter to those who are not afflicted, it is a serious concern to all its victims. So far as we know, medical science has no cure for the condition, although most patients are helped by staying in air-conditioned rooms as much as possible.

Incidentally, if somebody wants to get rich quick, all that is necessary is the discovery of a certain cure for hay-fever. Millions of victims in this country will gladly pay money for relief.

JUDGE GRIFFITH FOR RE-ELECTION.

JUDGE V. A. Griffith of Harrison county, is a candidate for re-election as judge of the State supreme court, Democratic primary to take place on August 27. Judge Griffith has "made good" and there is no doubt of his re-election. "By the direct vote of the people I have been elected to the position which I now occupy on the Supreme Court Bench not once but twice," says Judge Griffith. "I submit that I have done my duty industriously, honestly, fearlessly and to the utmost of such ability as I possess; and in offering for re-election I solicit from the people of my district a continuance of the time-tried policy to which they have heretofore adhered, the wisdom of which has been so well proved."

SWAPPING PLACES TO KEEP THE PEACE.

ROLAND Wall and his WPA head men are on the move again. This time Wall will be sent to Atlanta while his two chief assistants, Parker and White, go to the Washington staff headquarters. Cause of the transfer: Charges that the WPA might be used for political purposes in the coming campaign. Bilbo has been after Wall's scalp for years and it is to keep down any suspicion of WPA interference that the shift has been made.

The only way to restrain aggressive force is to meet it with more force.

The arrival of the watermelon season will bring contentment to some folks.

No nation is able to defend its rights until the people are ready to defend them.

Parents of little boys and girls, who go swimming, might save their lives by teaching their certain safety rules.

Every citizen can contribute to the spiritual growth and development of Hancock county, which is more important than many people believe.

No matter who is the final victor in Europe's mass murder case, the continent overseas is headed for one of its worst plagues in history—a plague of hunger. Those in a position to know tell us that in some parts of Europe, children are already dying in the streets like flies. Again we say Sherman was right when he said that "war is hell."

OUR FLAG IN HANCOCK COUNTY.

NOT that there is a lack of patriotism on the part of the people of our country as a whole, but there is woeful lack of display of the American flag.

Our patriotism is not measured by the waving of a tri-color cloth, symbolical of our faith and glory in our country, but it is an inspiring spiritually and we raise our heads, "doff our hats and salute the flag of all flags."

There should be in evidence the American flag on all sides. It should float in the breeze from every school house, public building and public and prominent place. We are proud of the flag; it stands for much and as such is regarded.

We note with more than ordinary gratification Hancock county will officially have its flag raising this week. A new place, a new pole, one of prominence, has been set in the center of the front grounds of the courthouse and from this will float the flag.

It will be a daily lesson. A quickening of our patriotic impulses and will serve as a lesson to those who might not realize its significance; what it stands for and its achievements.

Thanks to the Board of Supervisors and others who have made this present to our people possible; who have supplied a lesson so broad and lasting.

Love for our flag is love for our fellowmen. Surely we could not love our people and detest our flag.

This flag raising will take place on Thursday afternoon. It is possible our Senator and Representative in Congress will be here. However, if they are not present it will be for the reason they are detained at Washington by the weight of the nation's business. And, in their stead, other representative men will be there and inspirational speaking will be the order of the late afternoon.

IRVING BERLIN GIVES HIS PROFITS.

IN 1917, Irving Berlin, song writer, composed a song for a musical comedy but it was not used in the production.

For twenty-one years it was laid aside only to be introduced to the public over the radio, in 1938, by Kate Smith, well-known singer. Since then, it has gained great popularity, especially among the young people of the nation.

"It is the first song I ever wrote which required no push to get it started," says Mr. Berlin, who reports that it has been a "best seller" for a year and a half.

The title of the song hit is, "God Bless America," now in great popularity, and earning nearly $200 a day in royalties recently on account of a surge in public favor and use. Since its initial introduction to the people the song has earned more than $40,000.

We are glad to congratulate Mr. Berlin upon his recently announced intention to establish a trust fund for all royalties from the song, including the money already earned, and whatever comes from sheet music, phonograph records and other mechanical devices. Three trustees have been named to administer the fund for the benefit of American youth for patriotic purposes.

As a beginning, the trustees have selected the Boy Scouts of America and the Girl Scouts of America as the first organizations to benefit from a total of $43,646 available for distribution. The officials of these organizations are already being consulted about the use of the money.

HANCOCK AND GAME PROTECTION.

THERE will be another meeting of the Hancock County Game and Fish Protective Association, recently organized, on Wednesday, July 31. From each succeeding meeting it is evident there is an increasing interest. This is fully manifested.

Organized effort will get more for Hancock county from State and Federal authorities for our local waters and wild preserves in more ways than otherwise.

The Sea Coast Echo is happy to note the organization is rapidly growing in membership, which means for a more united effort and increased force.

If our waters and woods are to be replenished and protected there will be much game and fish and sportsmen and others will find this section a resort, second to none.

At each meeting new names are added to the membership enrollment. And we feel safe in saying more will be added at the next meeting. The membership fee is only $1.00 per annum. Anyone interested in the work of conservation is free to become a member.

W. H. Starr, member for the local district, State Game and Fish Commission, was present at the last meeting. His presence is of vast assistance in promoting the objective to bigger and better results.

TO WHICH WE ADD OUR "AMEN," TOO.

WHAT three Mississippi editors said: Ned Lee of the Webster Progress says: "Many people, upset and distressed by the war are asking: 'Why has God deserted the world?'" The editor of The Moss Point Advertiser says that this is not the right slant. "Better be asking," he says, "why the world has deserted God?" And Jimmie Arrington, of the Collins Commercial, says: "When you get down on your knees every night, thank God for permitting you to live in a country that permits you to thank God." To both of which opinions should be added a very fervent, "Amen," says the Neshoba Democrat.

THERE IS ONLY ONE KIND OF AMERICAN.

LITTLETON Upshur, editor of the Greenwood Commonwealth, says a good many things worth while in his personal column, and rarely could one find more truth in a few words than the following by Mr. Upshur: "There's no such thing as a German-American, British-American or French-American or anything-American, except those proud to say, 'I am an American.' Those who want to be hyphenates show that they are not real Americans. We need real Americans or none."

Hollywood Notes..

On his recent South American public appearance tour, Errol Flynn was mobbed by enthusiastic fans. On several occasions, his clothes were actually torn from his body by over-zealous fans, and while he was lying in a hospital several thousand of excited fans broke into the dining room, leaped at him, tearing his clothing and during the excitement, Flynn's leg was cut badly below the knee requiring several stitches.

Frederic March was unable to participate in a Red Cross benefit because of his work, so he and Mrs. March presented, completely equipped ambulance to the Red Cross, which will be shipped abroad at once.

Jimmy Lydon, a sandy-haired New York youngster, is making his screen debut in "Tom Brown's School Days," in which Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Freddie Bartholomew, Billy Balo and comedienne Polly Moran also appear.

The rapid pace of events in Europe is a source of trouble on the set where Deanna Durbin's "Spring Parade" is being made. As the scene of the picture is European, it may be necessary for the picture to be told in cut-back style with Deanna opening and closing the picture as an old woman of 70 relating details of her gay romance in Vienna to a group of her grandchildren in New York. Deanna is said to be delighted and excited about the project.

Clark Gable accompanies Carole Lombard on her location jaunts to Napa, in the northern part of California, where she is appearing in "They Knew What They Wanted."

"During the filming of the life of 'Brigham Young' the script called for Dean Jagger, who is portraying the title role, to kiss all of his twelve wives. Director Henry Hathaway thought this might be a little too much kissing for the audience, so he cut the required osculation down to two. Those on whose lips the kisses were bestowed were Mary Astor and Jean Rogers, who are wives No. 1 and 2, respectively.

In order that audiences might not notice that Judy Garland is now three inches taller than Mickey Rooney, with whom she has been teamed lately, they keep Rooney moving around in their pictures together to avoid odious height comparisons.

Joe Pasternak, the director every one of whose last dozen pictures has made a huge profit, says his formula for picture success is, "You've got to have one of two things for a picture today, sex, and, or heart." Seven of his successes have been pictures which Deanna Durbin has starred.

MGM is speeding preparations for Clark Gable's next film, since finishing "Boom Town," in which he was starred, because this picture, "30,000 Horses," must be completed by September 1st when a clause in Gable's new contract allows him "three months off for hunting."

Myrna Loy and William Powell will be teamed again late this year, when they will appear together in "Strange Honeymoon," a comedy of marriage and divorce in Sun Valley, Idaho.

The War Department will co-operate in the filming of "I Wanted Wings," which Paramount will produce. The film, which is concerned with the training of a U. S. Army Air Corps officer, will be photographed, in the main, at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas.

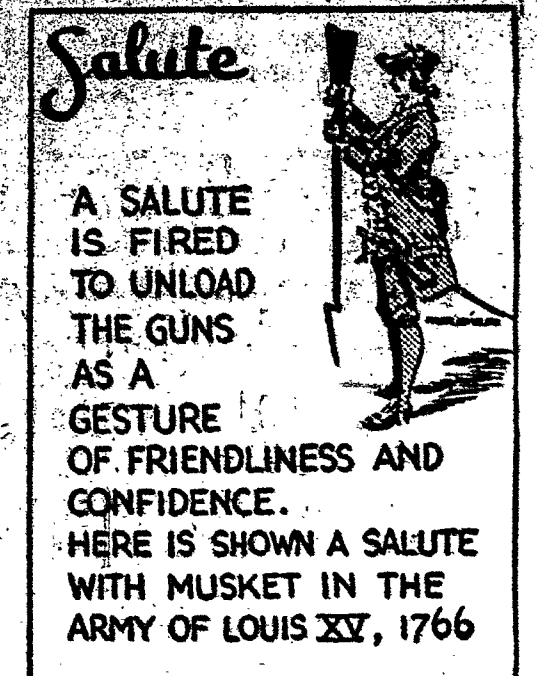

Department of Agriculture predicts an ample supply of crops.

Hollywood's Busiest Starlet

Judy Garland, one of the busiest young stars on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot, found enough time in-between making "Andy Hardy Meets Debutante" and "Strike Up the Band," to pose for this very charming portrait. Incidentally Miss Garland appears with Mickey Rooney in the both films.

IN OLD NEW ORLEANS.

LOUISIANA FROG PRODUCTION LEADS THE UNITED STATES.

Louisiana frog production lead the United States during the past year, 1939, with a production of 2,015,916 pounds, which represented the same number of frogs with an average weight of one pound each. At the current market price of $1.35 per dozen there was a return of $226,787.55 to those engaged in the industry.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a closed season on frogs in Louisiana, no catching and shipping being allowed in the months of April and May, there has been little if any decrease in Louisiana production.

There are three grades of marketable frogs, jumbo, medium and small. Prices shot up during the world war with disastrous effect on the species. The market originally took only jumbo and the next larger grades. When the large frogs became scarce the smaller sizes were taken, and at the peak of the high cost of living the extinction of the species seemed threatened.

The marketing of the smaller grades opened new territory, however, and new hunters appeared in new fields and these caught only the larger individuals.

This "explosion" of territory ruined the market for small frogs, and many dealers began to discourage the taking of immature specimens. Actual demonstration has shown that by taking the larger sizes, a hunter can not help but preserve his territory. In the past years, the Louisiana territory has taken on new life and conditions point that Louisiana will continue to lead the national producers.

UNUSUAL SHOPS IN THE NEW ORLEANS FRENCH QUARTER DELIGHT VISITORS.

The New Orleans French Quarter is a maze of tiny shops, tearooms, and antique shops, interspersed with ancient buildings that are historic treasures of an age gone by. Most unusual of all these shops is "Hinata's," a Japanese store that is located deep in the Creole city.

It delights visitors to see this Japanese store located in the heart of a city that was built by the Spanish and French. Its long counters contain carved wooden boxes, for cigars, lacquered brass-bound boxes china and hand-carved stone vessels. On hangers in cases are printed and embroidered Japanese dresses.

Today . . . the calm or tempestuous waters of Lake Pontchartrain abound with boats of all sorts. The position that New Orleans occupies, located on the shores of Lake Pontchartrain and within such easy reach of the Gulf and the Mississippi coast, has made New Orleans definitely a yachting city, with a club that is the second oldest in the country.

Quaint Pipe Shop in New Orleans French Quarter Draws Many Visitors.

Located on Chartres street in the French Quarter of New Orleans is a shop that deals wholly in pipes. There pipe smokers from all sections of the country have at some time or other either purchased or had a pipe repaired.

It's the shop of Emile C. Jansen and for seventy years the name of Jansen has stood for expert pipe repairing in New Orleans. Although not always in the same location, the family have dealt in pipes for generations. In the small shop on Chartres Street are hundreds and hundreds of pipes.

The shop is a treasure house for collectors. The numerous glass cases that fill up every inch of the space hold pipes to fit every position and pocketbook. Noble meerschaums, richly carved, quaint old student pipes, briar pipes for the outdoor man, and smooth ones for the office smoker. Hundreds of pipes, new and old and some very valuable.

Mr. Jansen's father was a silversmith by trade, but changed over to pipe repairing in 1868. At his death the business passed into the hands of his son.

It's the only shop of its kind in the city and to people who really love pipes it's a rare pleasure to either buy or just browse around.

because—

1. Every street needs a gritty, non-skid surface for the protection of motorists and pedestrians.
2. At night you need a pavement with high visibility.
3. Safety also calls for a pavement that is free from chuck holes, ruts and bumps; and—states that way with minimum maintenance.
4. You want a pavement that drains quickly; that is easily cleaned and stays clean; and—no depressions to catch dirt.
5. You want a pavement that makes the whole neighborhood look modern, prosperous, attractive.

(Concrete is used only on streets... completely meets all of these specifications.)

"20-MULE TEAM" THRILL-PAKED PICTURE AT A. & G.

Wallace Beery, Leo Carrillo, Marjorie Rambeau Starred In Thrill-Packed Adventure Film.

"The pioneer days of Death Valley, when mule trains hauled their loads of borax across 182 miles of blistering desert to the nearest railroad point, Mojave, are relived in "20 Mule Team," which opens at the A. & G. Theater, with Wallace Beery starred as Muleskinner Bill Bragg, the best driver on the route.

Teamed with Beery are Leo Carrillo, who scored with him in the sensational "Viva Villa!" and Marjorie Rambeau. Carrillo is seen as Plute Pete, Beery's Indian "swampy," and Miss Rambeau as Josie Johnson, hotel and saloon owner to whom Beery considers himself engaged but whom he cannot persuade to allow him any more beers "on the cuff."

Filmed in the original locale among the sand dunes, sun-baked canyons and salt pools of Death Valley, "20 Mule Team" tells of the fight to find a new "mother lode" of borax and of the efforts of Josie to earn enough to give her daughter, Jean, an education. Jean is played by Anne Baxter, newcomer from the New York stage, who jilts the young company paymaster and tries to elope with a gambler, Stag Roper. Noah Beery, Jr., joins his uncle for the first time, playing the paymaster, Mitch, while Douglas Fowley is seen as Stag.

Typical Western gunfights and desert battles highlight the action which involves such other popular character actors as Clem Bevins, playing the prospector, Chuckawalla; Bertin Churchill as "Jackass" Brown, head of the Desert Borax Company; Arthur Hohl, Clem Bevins, Charles Halton, Minor Watson, Oscar O'Shea and Lloyd Ingraham.

Richard Thorpe, who recently scored an outstanding success with his direction of Robert Montgomery in "The Earl of Chicago," directed "20 Mule Team," while J. Walker, responsible for the earlier Beery Western, "The Bad Man of Brimstone," produced.

POOR FRANCE.

Poor France, fair Françoise, now bowed in shame, Trembling neath conqueror's heel; Thy glories but an olden name, Whose memories thou must feel.

Thy Sacre Coeur sadly looks down, And pales great Notre Dame; Grandeur of Rheims in angry frown, Bewails War's cruel flame.

Thy soul's life once so bright and gay, Crushed out in sad defeat; Thy beauty turned to ashes gray, Unholy hands now beat.

The German's ring uncouth and sharp, A foreign song tinkling thy harp, Brings shadows of the dead.

But memories of thy Saints and Kings, Will linger ever like a charm; Past valor ever to thee clings, Like stars around thy form.

Weep France in rain of tears today, Until again thou'll rise; Sleep France, in troubled dreams away, God watches yet thy skies.

SECRETARY OF STATE

The Ship of State had at its helm last week President pro tem of the Senator W. B. Rogers who acted Governor during the absence from the state of both the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor. This is nothing new to Governor Rogers and the old ship always sails well under his guidance.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation from the Water Valley Watermelon Carnival Association to attend its Tenth Annual Watermelon Carnival on August 8. This carnival has attained huge proportions in both the business and social life of that section of Mississippi. It is always attended by a great crowd of people and the good citizens of Water Valley and Yalobusha county truly exemplify the traditions of Mississippi for hospitality and cordiality. Splendid highways, from every direction, lead to Water Valley. It is a beautiful and thriving little city and you will really enjoy every minute of your time spent at this Carnival.

According to Dr. Clarence Dorman, director of the State Experiment Station, there is extensive damage to crops, much of it beyond repair, due to the excessive rains throughout Mississippi. He reports that this "wet spell" started in the closing days of May, and while localized to some extent throughout June, it has extended to most parts of Mississippi during July with disastrous effect, especially on fertile bottomlands. He states that the rainfall on the Station grounds a State College for the first twelve days of July, according to official readings, was 15.23 inches. That is more than one fourth of a normal annual rainfall.

However, the howl weevil infestation is low according to the report of the State Plant Board. Inspectors of the Board made examination on 66 farms in 22 counties during the week ending July 13th. They found weevils present on 43, or 65 per cent of the farms. The average infestation was 8 per cent as compared with 20 per cent for the same date last year.

The officers of the 155th Infantry, Mississippi National Guard, conducted a command post exercise on Saturday and Sunday, July 20, and 21 in the National Park area at Vicksburg, according to Brig. General George H. Snyder, state adjutant general. The exercise was prepared by Col. L. R. Hathaway, a regular army instructor, and was a phase of preliminary training prior to the Third Army maneuvers scheduled August 4-24. General Snyder said. The adjutant general said he received orders for the Mississippi National Guard to encamp in an area about 15 miles south of Alexandria, La. The troops will leave their home stations early on the morning of August 4th. The main body of infantry and engineer troops and all medical personnel will travel to the camp area by train.

The State Department of Education has just finished adding up the number of students who attended High School in Mississippi during the 1939-40 term and finds that there were 62,411 enrolled. This is quite an increase over the previous year and the largest total on record. As usual, many more pupils were enrolled in the lower grades. So many drop out each year and never go on.

Reports from Chicago are to the effect that the Mississippi delegation to the big Democratic show had a happy, hilarious but sober time. Mississippi was cast for President Roosevelt. A majority of the Mississippi delegation voted for Speaker Bankhead of Alabama for Vice-president but when the result was no longer in doubt the entire delegation changed its vote to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace so as to make his nomination unanimous. Governor Johnson acted as spokesman for the Mississippi delegation.

The dome of the New Capitol has recently been touched up with a new coat of paint which adds much to its beauty, especially when viewed from a distance. The stately American Eagle, who sits majestically above the coast of gold, and grand old birds looks defiance to any foreign foe who would dare set foot upon the sacred soil of Mississippi or try to enslave her patriotic sons and daughters.

Women's "Build-Up"

Women's headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, so often relieved by CARDUL. Principal way it helps is by increasing appetite, stimulating flow of gastric juices and so improving digestion and helping to build physical resistance. Another way you may find CARDUL helpful is in relieving gastric distress. Take it a few days before and during "this time." Used for 50 years.

Congressional Sidelights

by Congressman Wm. McColmer

ROOSEVELT AGAIN.

ANOTHER precedent has fallen. For the first time in the history of the country a man has been nominated by his party for a third term. The Constitution does not limit the period that a president may serve; but George Washington, the first President, set the precedent of a two-term service, and that came to be accepted as the term of office for President.

In his speech of acceptance, after he had been renominated on the first ballot, the President stated that, if he consulted his own desires, he would retire from office and drop the heavy responsibilities resting on him, but that, in view of the international situation, "My conscience will not let me turn my back upon a call to service."

WALLACE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

The Presidential nomination was a cut and dried affair from the beginning, but a very bitter fight developed over the nomination for vice-president. When it was indicated that the President wanted Secretary of Agriculture Wallace as a running mate, some five or six candidates withdrew in his favor, including Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt, who had been mentioned at one time as a presidential possibility and who had developed a great deal of support for the second place on the ticket after the President's renomination became assured. Speaker of the House William B. Bankhead, one of the most popular in Washington, remained in the race. Angered by what they regarded as the high-handedness of the administration and its lieutenants, many delegates booed the nominating speech of Secretary Wallace and every subsequent mention of his name. However, Mr. Wallace was overwhelmingly nominated on the first ballot.

FARLEY DROPS OUT.

Postmaster General Farley, who has served as Chairman of the Democratic National Committee for the past eight years and who managed the President's two successful national campaigns, is dropping out of his party and Government offices to accept a private position. It is generally conceded that Mr. Farley has made a good administrator as Postmaster General and that his guiding hand will be sorely missed by the party during the campaign.

HAM stimulates a dull appetite with its flavor and aroma and is a good source of heat and energy. When the family has had boiled ham fried ham or ham sandwiches perhaps one of these recipes below will be especially welcome.

Veal and Ham Pie

4 pounds of lean, uncooked cured ham, cut very thin
4 pounds of lean veal, cut very thin.
2 onions, chopped very fine
½ bunch parsley, chopped very fine; about 3 tablespoons after chopping.
Black pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.
Cooking sherry.

On the bottom of a large baking dish, place a layer of the thinly sliced ham. On top of this place a thin slice of veal. Sprinkle chopped onions over this and some of the chopped parsley. Use no salt. Add another layer of ham, then the veal and the other ingredients. Do this until all the ingredients have been used. Add the Worcestershire sauce and 2 tablespoons of cooking sherry. Cover with a pie crust rolled 3-8 inch thick and pressed in several places to allow steam to escape. Crimp firmly over the edge of the baking dish and place in an oven 450 degrees for 10 minutes then lower oven temperature to 325 degrees and bake for 1 hour and 40 minutes. This serves a dozen or more.

Macaroni, Ham au Gratin

Put a layer of cooked macaroni in a greased baking dish, add a layer of chopped, cooked ham and a layer of medium white sauce. Repeat the process. Cover top with buttered bread crumbs and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in an oven 375 degrees until thoroughly heated and browned.

Sandwich Suggestions

Combine equal quantities of minced ham and grated cheese with a little Worcestershire sauce and some prepared mustard. Put 2 table-spoons of this mixture and a slice of Bermuda onion between slices of bread and toast.

Put a thin slice of ham and another of chicken between circles of brown bread; add a little lettuce, mayonnaise or a slice of tomato as preferred.

Ham Dumplings

Blend 2 cups of prepared biscuit dough, 1 cup minced ham and 3-4 cup of water. Pour in a buttered mold and steam in a closely covered pot for 1½ hours. Surround the cooked dumplings with cold slaw; garnish the slaw with diced ham that has been cooked in a frying pan until it is very crisp.

Ham Fondue

Soak 1 cup of soft bread crumbs in 1 cup of milk. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter and add 1 cup of finely chopped ham. Turn in the soaked crumbs with 1 egg slightly beaten and salt, pepper and paprika to taste. Cook 10 minutes or until thick. Serve on toast.

Ham Blankets

Combine 1 cup of chopped raisins, 2 cups cooked rice, 1-3 cup chopped pickled chili peppers or other pickle, 1 beaten egg, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, paprika and salt to taste. Spread prepared mustard on one side of twelve slices of ham, place some of the prepared mixture on each slice and bring ends together and fasten with toothpicks. Fry until brown or boil under flame. May be made with thin slices of raw or broiled ham.
